AFRICAN AMERICAN MUSEUM OF SOUTHERN ARIZONA

— 7 P3 ★
1303 E University Blvd, Rm 244. • 10 a.m.— 4 p.m.
aamsaz.org

The African American Museum of Southern Arizona is devoted to gathering and sharing stories, images, and artifacts as we document, digitize, and preserve African American and Black life, culture, and history in Southern Arizona to benefit the community. It provides the community with an applied and virtual venue and repository for stories, histories, and cultural contributions by African Americans and Blacks in our region. Our kid-friendly tours do not require a reservation during U of A Museum Day.

CENTER FOR CREATIVE PHOTOGRAPHY — 2 P1 ▲ ★ ○

1030 N Olive Rd. • 10 a.m.—4 p.m.
ccp.arizona.edu

Join us for an inspiring exploration of Care, Consciousness, and Community, where we will discover the powerful dialogue between art and science. This unique project is a collaboration between students from the School of Nursing and the School of Art. Together, they will examine how healthcare, art, community engagement, and the principles of justice, equity, diversity, and inclusion intersect to advance health equity. Experience a day filled with engaging art installations, hands-on activities that encourage active participation, and thought-provoking scientific experiences.

COIT MUSEUM OF PHARMACY AND HEALTH SCIENCES

— 4 P2 ○
1703 E. Mabel St. • 10 a.m.— 2p.m.
museum.pharmacy.arizona.edu

Founded in 1966, The Coit Museum is home to one of the world's leading collections of pharmaceutical artifacts including the Upjohn Pharmacy Collection from Disneyland. Join us for tours and hands-on activities.

1601 E University Blvd. • 10 a.m.— 5 p.m.
flandrau.org

Flandrau Science Center & Planetarium is the University of Arizona's destination for adventures in space and science. Featuring hands-on science exhibits, immersive planetarium shows, and activities that reveal the marvels of the universe, Flandrau inspires people of all ages to discover the wonders of science.

JOHN E. GREIVENKAMP MUSEUM OF OPTICS — 9 P2 ○ ▲

1630 E. University Blvd. • 10 a.m.—2 p.m.
wp.optics.arizona.edu/museum

Come explore the fascinating world of optics and optical sciences at the John E. Greivenkamp Museum of Optics. The Wyant College of Optical Sciences is proud to showcase its collection of antique and historic telescopes, microscopes, lenses, and cameras. While exploring the museum, don't miss the opportunity to participate in our annual Laser Fun Day. Hosted by the Student Optics Chapter at the University of Arizona, it is a vibrant event designed to engage the community, particularly young people, with hands-on demonstrations. Through dozens of interactive exhibits, attendees can discover how optics is transforming the world. Our goal is to inspire the next generation of innovators in the optics industry.

LABORATORY OF TREE-RING RESEARCH — 11 P5 ○ ▲ ★

1215 E. Lowell St. • 10 a.m.—2 p.m.
ltrr.arizona.edu

Come explore the fascinating world of dendrochronology at the Laboratory of Tree-Ring Research. Visit the oldest trees in the world and get the science stories behind them in our Exhibit Hall. Come take a short tour of the cutting-edge laboratories and meet the researchers. Special lecture by Dr. Valerie Trouet, author of Tree Story at 11AM. Bring the kids to explore the children's area and explore our hands-on activities.

MUSEUM ASSOCIATION OF ARIZONA — 10 P5 ○ ▲ ★

1215 E. Lowell St. • 10 a.m.— 4 p.m.
azmuseums.org

Visit the Museum Association of Arizona table to learn more about our projects and programs that serve Arizona museums. MAA provides communication and information networks, and professional development opportunities for the more than 300 museums across the state. We also advocate on their behalf at the local, state, and national levels.

MUSEUM OF DEMOCRACY — 6 P3 ★

Student Union Bookstore, Lower Level • 10 a.m.— 4 p.m. freedomcenter.arizona.edu/museum-of-democracy-exhibit

Discover the rich history of American democracy at the Museum of Democracy exhibit, now on display at the University of Arizona Student Union Bookstore, Lower Level. Brought to campus by the Center for the Philosophy of Freedom through partnership with the Arizona Board of Regents, this exhibit showcases a portion of the renowned Museum of Democracy in New York City. Featuring pieces from the Wright Family Collection—the nation's largest and most comprehensive collections of historical and political campaign memorabilia—this exhibit offers a fascinating glimpse into presidential elections, social movements, and the fight for civil rights. Don't miss this unique opportunity to explore the rich history of the country's democracy. Free and open to the public through May! Guided Tours scheduling information is available here.

POETRY CENTER — 3 P2 ★ ▲

1013 E. University Blvd. • 9 a.m.—3 p.m.
poetry.arizona.edu

Rest and recharge at the Poetry Center Library! The Poetry Center houses one of the nation's foremost poetry collections in an award-winning building. Curl up with a picture book in the Children's Corner or explore the wild and wonderful world of artist's books in our exhibition space. The Library will be open from 9-3. We'd love to see you!

THE ARCHIVE OF VISUAL ARTS — 12 P5 ▲

artmuseum.arizona.edu

Enjoy free admission 10am-4:30pm and creative activities 12pm-4pm at the art museum. Experience the special exhibition Hank Willis Thomas: LOVERULES, on loan from the collection of the Jordan D. Schnitzer Family Foundation. Trained as a photographer, Thomas reimagines words, materials, and images—from historic photos to flags to advertisements—and invites us to see and challenge systems of inequality while affirming our shared humanity to shape a better future.

WORLDS OF WORDS CENTER — 5 P3 ▲ ★

1430 E Second St., Rm 453 • 10 a.m.—4 p.m.
wowlit.org

"Cepeda Stories," an exhibit of original art on loan from award-winning illustrator Joe Cepeda, brings home the message that everyone has a story that deserves to be told. Cepeda's original bold and colorful acrylic and oil paintings highlight family, neighborhood and school bonds and invite children to share their own stories. In addition, original picturebook illustrations from the Worlds of Words archives will be on display in the Mary J. Wong Special Collections room to complement the work of Cepeda.
